

The feminist cult symbol of the Genesis 3 Nachash now stands upon the United States Capitol building in Washington D.C. as Nodite/Roman occupation

The elite Roman aristocracy was descended from Nod: explained in the sermons "Female Serpent" – [see MP3 page]

Here she is in ancient Ur history as "mother serpent with child":

Here she is as the Roman "mother of God: Heaven Queen"

Here she is as the "Freedom Statue" atop the U.S. Capitol: (Constructed in Rome 1856-63)

Note: Christians have missed the important fact that the "serpent" of Genesis was female, and that her family descendants of the Nachash/Nodites comprise the "seed of enmity" of Genesis 3:15. The Nachash/Nodites work through many groups in an attempt to impose their ungodly religious matriarchy in the Earth. Both the Word of God and recorded history show that the Nachash/Nodites have used the Black Nobility (Old Venetian families), the Committee of 300 (formerly the British East India Company), the modern day Pharisees (Talmudic Edomite Zionists), and the Jesuit run Papacy (the Virgin Mary cult), to enhance their Nachash star cult agenda. Although some Israel Kingdom groups have done a good job in identifying Communism there is very much more to the world system conspiracy than the Edomite Red Terror. Christians need to know!

How the Virgin Mary Cult of Rome captured Washington City (masculine) and made it The District of Columbia (feminine) --- below article

Washington, D.C. (District of Columbia) was not always Washington, D.C. It was at first Washington City named after the Revolutionary War hero and first Constitutional USA President, George Washington. "Columbia" was the European term used to describe the colonies of North America prior to America's independence from Britain. When the Protestant sects of Europe fled from the tyranny of the Church of Europe, which ultimately meant Rome, they had finally found a home in North America where they could worship the Living God of the Bible in safety. The Christian American colonists, having a compassionate demeanor, left the door open for even Catholics of Europe to emigrate to the new land if they were under persecution of the "Old World Church". This brotherly compassion for the oppressed turned out to be the Achilles Heel of the colonies and an error in judgment. The European Catholics vowing loyalty to the government ideals of the colonies could not muster up the fortitude to ultimately forsake their service to the Pope of Rome. Mary-Land became the home of the American Catholic population and with it came an influx of the priestly Papal army of Catholic clergy from Europe. While claiming to be American Christians, the then small Catholic population based mainly in Baltimore Maryland, remained servants to the Papal dictates.

By this the Protestant sects were caught off guard and merely saw the early colonial Papists as those who innocently worshiped Christ.

Here's an amazing part of American colonial history that is little known and even less paid attention to: Before Washington City was ever called "Washington" it was named and called Rome by the Catholics of Maryland, even as far back as 1669. (source: The Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. 15. New York: Robert Appleton Company, 1912). What's more, a main large creek flowing through this new Rome was named the "Tiber" --- just as Rome in Italy is next to the Tiber River. The dangerous influx of the "Mary, Mother of God Cult" (actually the Nachash cult) had sewn its international seeds, when the rest of the colonies were developing American self government separate from Europe.

It is also pertinent to our conspiratorial history to realize that the land area which would eventually become Washington, D.C. was originally owned by the wealthy Catholic families of Carroll, Digges, Queen, and Young that possessed these landed estates before the American Revolution. These estates were spiritually tended to by the old Jesuit missions from Europe. The Jesuits were (and still are) to the Papal reign what the CIA, Mossad, M16 are to secret service world government agencies today.

When it came time for the new USA Republic to choose an area for the nation's capital city, it was done in accord to the Constitutional provision. Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 of the document reads, "The Congress shall have Power To ...exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the Acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States." (underline added)

The States that "won" the privilege of housing the new capital were Virginia and Maryland. Both states provided the land for the new capital which would be named Washington City, in honor of President Washington. But this area was already known as "Rome" by the "Tiber" which was positioned half in Virginia and half in Maryland, on both sides of the Potomac River. Thus the new federal capital city was positioned, by Jesuit Catholic influence, in Virgin - Mary - Land! (note: The Papal Virgin Mary is the modern feminine symbol of the female serpent of Eden - Nachash) The wealthy Catholic estate owners called the entire area of Washington City and the surrounding county "Columbia", in fashion of the old European nomenclature referring to America's settlements.

It took a while for the Pope's secret militant army of Jesuits to convert the masculine city of Washington, into the feminine metropolitan area of Washington, District of Columbia, but they did it. And they did it to prove their determination of bringing all of Protestant America back into the prison of the Catholic international realm. That realm of government is dedicated to multicultural tyranny under Papal rule with no room for liberty. However, since the Constitution itself would prohibit such a maneuver by a foreign state, it would necessitate a "legal" remedy to supplant the lawful jurisdiction of the Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 true Seat of Government at Washington City. Here is where the legalism sleight of hand plus apathy on the part of a sleeping citizenry came into play.

In 1822 several monarchies of Europe met in Italy and passed the Treaty of Verona. These monarchies were ultimately beholding to the Pope, with the Pope and the monarchies ruling Europe on the presumption of "the divine right of kings". This treaty targeted all dissent and resistance to the "divine right" rule which viewed all people as only serfs who can have no say in government. The Verona Treaty also gave the green light to Jesuits in America to clandestinely work to destroy the original USA Constitution, a government not ruled by the Vatican, but rather by "We the people" who were dominantly Protestant. By 1871 Congress had sold out to the Jesuit influence and passed the Act of 1871 which dissolved the city charters of Washington and Georgetown, and made that entire Catholic Columbia area (county wide) a new legal entity incorporated as The District of Columbia. Being Catholic/Jesuit from its beginning, The District of Columbia Inc. is in effect a Vatican district. What began as Washington City, the nation's capital, is now Columbia (fem) of the Virgin Mary Cult.
