

Esau/Edom – The Scriptural Perspective

There has been a presumption taught for several decades that all the world's financial ownership and conspiratorial control begins with Esau of Genesis 25 (Jacob we know, was Esau's brother). As the Bible account explains, Esau's family line became known as Edom while Jacob's family line became known as Israel. Later when Judahites returned to Judea from the Babylonian captivity in 538 BC they brought with them tainted religious concepts they had acquired while in Babylon. In 125 BC John Hyrcanus of Judah forced the Edomites, living to the south of Judea, to convert to the then already adulterated religion of Judea and thus the Edomites became "Jews". As a result Judea became even more corrupt with this infusion of Edomite Jews into its fold. Those historic times brought forth the concepts of Judaism we see today.

In the late 18th century certain Jews became the notable banking houses of Europe with families such as the Rothschilds and Warburgs who acquired much wealth indeed. The conclusion has therefore been drawn that this proves that the world's usury banking began with this household, and therefore the "Esau/Edom Jews" were the sole initiators of usury banks. We hear many times over, "It all starts with Esau". But is this belief accurate? Not according to the Bible and history it's not.

Esau is not the beginning of the ruler-ship of the world by an elite clandestine group of people, and the Rothschild bankers are not the wealthiest people nor do they "call the shots" of the world system. The Edomite Jews surely have had a hand in the world money system, and it is truly good that they have been exposed. But they are not the top rung of the chain of command of those who rule the world. Those of the ultimate evil ruler-ship have hidden behind the Jews for centuries as a smoke screen while they plunder the nations with ungodly financial gain that far supersedes the Rothschilds. Preachers teaching that "Edom Jews rule the world" are actually aiding and abetting the real world system rulers.

The real copiousness of the world system belongs to the "seed of enmity" of Genesis 3:15 which people the Bible tells us precedes the Esau/Edomites by thousands of years. Bible "timeline" references clearly reveal this fact. For example if one has a Rotherham Sacred Name Bible, or any time-line reference Bible dictionary, these dates are easy to review. In Rotherham they are at the top of each page. In Genesis 3:15 where Yahweh states that there would be enmity between the seed of Eve and the seed of Nachash (the tempter/enchanter), the basic date is given as 4004 BC. The birth of Esau and his adulteration with non-adamic women didn't take place until Genesis chapters 25 & 26. The date for that period is listed as 1800 BC. This means that for 2200 years before Esau's family line of Edomite jewry ever appeared on the scene, the adversary world system seed line, who opposes the family of Adam and Eve, was already organized and actively working to wipe God's family off of the face of the Earth. This is a period of time twice as long as the existence of the Roman Empire. Plainly the Bible teaches us that the world system ruler-ship did not start with Esau.

The family line of Esau later joined with the seed of enmity to combat Adamic Patriarchy, but it didn't do so until over 2000 years after the events of Genesis chapter 3. In fact the family line of Esau has been used and controlled by the Genesis 3:15 Nachash enmity seed ever since the birth of Esau took place. What Christians really need to know is "who comprises the seed of enmity, what is their religion, and how do they operate to oppose God's Kingdom"? To mention "The Sirius Star Cult" or "The Black Nobility" has no meaning to Christians, even those who deem themselves "Truth Seekers".

What do we make of the statement so often repeated that “Esau began the evil world regime, and the Rothschilds started international usury banking”? As European history records, the arrival of the Rothschild Jewish dynasty of usury and credit debt came into being by Mayer Amschel Rothschild in the late 18th century. However long before this circumstance took place Europe had been economically at the mercy of the Knights Templar with regard to banking and usury. The Knights Templar was an upper crust elite group of soldiers from very wealthy families operating within the Catholic Church to protect those who would make pilgrimages to old Jerusalem. The Knights Templar were the best equipped, highest trained, most extraordinarily supplied, and fiercest military organization of their era. But they were fighting an ignoble war of the crusades for the Papal Church. Their zeal was misguided.

These knights also became extremely wealthy by setting up banks throughout Europe where people could safely deposit their money without fear that the banks would be robbed and their money gone. Nobody was about to “fool around” with the Templar’s vaults since the Knights protected the banks. It would be like someone today having their bank in the center of a Navy Seals military compound. Realizing how quickly and thoroughly all of Europe liked banking with the Templars, the Templars saw the opportunity to charge interest (usury) on all of their bank deposits which monumentally boosted the Knights Templar to the top of Europe’s elite financiers. Technically since interest was against Church Canon law the Knights billed a depositor for “bank fees” or “rents on money”, but as time went on these terms were dropped and “interest” became the normal designated agreement. This was during 1118 – 1312 AD, some 600 hundred years before the “Jews” of the Rothschild bankers opened their first banks. Banking history in Europe therefore reveals that the Esau/Edomite/Rothschilds were not the first operators of interest banking monopolies, rather -- the Knights Templar were. The banks of the Knights Templar ranged from Ireland, through Europe, all the way to Jerusalem which made the Knights the first truly organized international bankers. In fact the Templars had amassed such a huge stash of gold in France that a greedy but powerful King, Phillip IV, conceived the idea of forming a huge army so that he could defeat the Knights Templar and take their gold. He did. This was in 1307. Phillip IV wound up torturing 138 Knights to extract “confessions” of heresy against the Church and himself. He also executed 54 Knights by burning them alive. Phillip IV furthermore pressured Pope Clement V to dissolve the Knights Templar Order which the Pope did in 1312.

While this was all happening the mercantile powers of the Venetian Empire were actually manipulating the events between the Templar crusades into Jerusalem, the King of France, and Papal Rome, to the effect that old Venice came out on top of the entire European quagmire. But that’s another story. The bottom line is that the Rothschilds weren’t and aren’t the originators of European interest banking any more than Esau’s family preceded the Nachash enmity family line of Genesis 3., which of course it did not. The Rothschilds, with all their twisted Zionist war funding, are also not the wealthiest group on the planet today contrary to what certain unaware preachers expound from the internet pulpit. The Nachash religion (which is not international Judaism) controls the conflict for the world system exactly as Yahweh declared it would in Genesis 3. Christians are very slow to comprehend this, and are actually so slow in “connecting the dots” that the flock of Christ’s sheep are not capable of upending the Nachash cult which has had a 6000 year head start at fleecing the easily misled and docile sheep. The dismal fact is that 99.9% of Christians are unteachable as to who the real controllers of the ungodly world system actually are. Take heart however as a Godly remnant exists. In the mean time, the command order from our King is this: Isaiah 26:20&21. Readers who are actually concerned should be pursuing this command by contrite prayer and by physical readiness. If a person needs help then they should be networking with others who can offer guidance and suggestions. Only the return of the King of Kings will stop the Nachash. Pray for His return. He will come again.
