Your Saxon Christian Heritage

If you are of white European Christian heritage then you are a descendant of Isaac, Abraham's son, which also makes you an Israelite we read about in the Holy Scriptures.

God worked a miracle and enabled Abraham and his wife Sarah to give birth to their son Isaac when Abraham was 100 years old and Sarah was about 90. We can learn about this in the Book of Genesis chapters 17 and 21. Later Isaac had a son, Jacob, who in turn had 12 sons whose families became the tribes of Israel. So all Israelites are from Isaac, Abraham's son.

Isaac's direct seed line, or descendants, are a special family line as it is this seed line (the Israelite race) from which Jesus Christ Himself would be born. God told Abraham "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Genesis 21:12) That is, the "sons of Isaac" would carry the family covenant line of the then coming Christ, the Messiah of Israel.

In fact the Scriptures tell us in Genesis 17:19 "And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him."

As the Israelites migrated into Europe they forgot the name "Israel" and became historically known by a name that stemmed from their "father" Isaac. They became known as the Saxons and built the various white Christian nations of that continent.

This name evolved from "Isaac's sons" to "Saac's Sons" to "Saxons". Language and historical experts testify to this truth. In his exhaustively referenced book entitled "Judah's Sceptre and Joseph's Birthright" (1925, reprinted 1946, Destiny Pub., Merrimac, MA, 01860) renowned theology scholar J.H. Allen cites historians' and language specialists' conclusion, stating, "It is now a well authenticated fact that the word Saxon is derived from the Hebrew name of I-saac"-Part III chapter 6.

Although some ethnology references divide the white European race into groups such as the Celts, Goths, Germanics, Nordics, etc., from a Biblical point of view all the white Christians of Europe have descended from Isaac and therefore are all "Saxons". These "sons of Isaac" later migrated to the lands of North America, Australia, New Zealand, and other white countries.

In summary – if you are of white European Christian heritage you are a "son of Isaac" that is, you are a physical racial "Saxon" Israelite of the family of the Holy Bible.
