

RE: The occult matriarchy of Nachash vs the patriarchy of King Jesus

Addendum #004 to the Feminine Serpent (Nachash) sermon series

For those who have completed the sermon series plus reviewed the .pdf graphics, maps, several addendum, --- this additional commentary will serve to update the basic sermon premise plus answer some questions sent by online viewers via email. There have been repeated requests concerning more clarity about the Black Nobility as regard to their ancestry and status in the world today. As covered, with references on the audio sermons, the Black Nobility constitute the ancient and current European Aristocracy. This is an adulterated royal seed line plus a very few capitalist families being admitted into the “nobility” due to their immense wealth. The most common question is “Are the Black Nobility Jews?”. Answer – no, not primarily anyway. The origins of the Black Nobility go all the way back to Nod, from Cain’s family with the tempter of Eve, the female Nachash, being Cain’s wife. Cain and Nachash were mated in a union (I shall refrain from using “marriage”) as explained in sermon # 2.

The “Jews” however descend from Esau who did not arrive on the scene until 2280 years after the Cain/Nachash family was already a world power long before Jewry and their banks ever existed. The below list is an elementary simplification of the origins of the world conspiracy of evil players who believe they can make a better “Garden of Eden” on Earth than did Yahweh Almighty for His family of Adam and Eve and their children. Basically we have historically and presently:

Group one:

1) Nodites of Genesis 4 (aka Cainites, mistranslated as Kenites) These Cainites anciently dominated the costal area of Phoenicia around the port cities of Tyre and Sidon. They expanded their empire throughout the Mediterranean Sea. These were never “Jews” and their descendants today are not Jews. They are the top tier of the world conspiracy operating mainly through the Sirius Star Cult, Black Nobility, Committee of 300, and the Vatican. The Christian patriot claim that “the Jews control everything” is a blunder and smokescreen error, and is precisely what the Cainite Black Nobility want the sheep to believe. The Cainite Black Nobility have hidden behind this “Jew smokescreen” for hundreds of years and still very much do today. Are Christian patriots aware of this? Mostly, no. It is the elephant in the room that Christian patriots avoid. Also it should be noted that the Nodite/Cainite Black Nobility were not technically called Black Nobility until the era of the Venetian Empire (626 -1796). “Black” denotes their deeds, not their skin color. The deification of the female Nodite Nachash as the star Sirius held major influence in the enchantment religions of Egypt and Babylonia (Chaldea) in pre-Abrahamic history; Ishtar, Isis, Astarte, Ashtoreth, are the same deity.

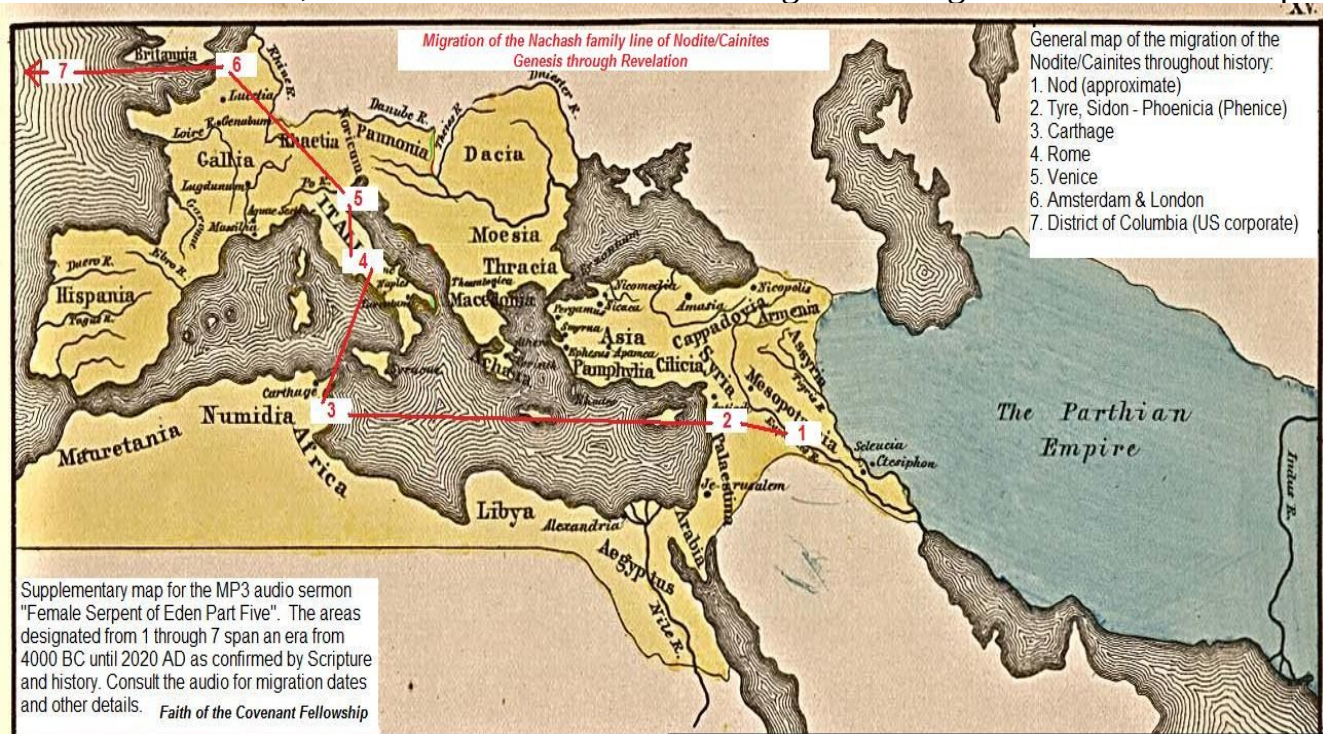

Group two:

2) Edomites who occupied the land of Canaan but lived further eastward from the Nodite costal tribal area. They wound up south of Judea (originally “land of Judah”). In 125 BC John Hyrcanus of the house of Maccabees militarily forced the Edomites to become religious Judeans, hence these Edomites then picked up the name “Jews”. As history much later progressed the Nodite/Cainite Black Nobility used the Edomite Jews as money launderers and usury front bankers as the Black Nobility hid behind the scenes when economic trouble would arise. The Edomite Jews later migrated northward into Khazaria, instructing the locals, then in time became the Bolshevik Communists.

Group three (possible):

3) There could have been a minor amount of racial mixing between some of the Cainites and some of the Edomites that produced some further type of “Jews” living in Judea at the time of Christ. But we don’t know that for sure. We do know that Edomites eventually mixed with Khazars, not with Cainites. When speaking of the Black Nobility elite as compared to the various “Jews” they are not the same family of people. They are different genealogies. Primarily, today’s Jews are Edom; Black Nobility are Cainites.

Cain and Nachash’s family seed migrated from Nod to the Mediterranean coastal Tyre/Sidon area, while a portion went to Egypt and Chaldea. They then traveled to the north coast of Africa to build Carthage. Later the Carthaginian Empire was defeated by Rome, but the “absorbed” Carthaginian aristocracy gained control within Rome and became the Roman aristocracy, then moved on to Venice just east of Rome, then to London/Amsterdam, then on to infiltrate the Washington DC region of the USA. Map:

[ between #1 and #2, Cainite/Nodites also migrated to Egypt and Chaldea establishing occult mystic schools. The Egyptian goddess Isis is the same as Sidon’s goddess Astarte (at #2) , and later the Roman Catholic Mary queen of heaven at #4] 2

According to the Bible it is the elite rich of the world who persecute the common man and cause the misery of the “daily grind” that most of the world’s population has to endure. “Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before judgment seats? Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?” (James 2:6,7)

There’s nothing wrong with having money. Some of the faithful of God were wealthy while some were not. God has stated that He isn’t concerned with a person’s money, but rather if a person is a repentant sinner who also loves to obey God. But the elite mega-super rich in the world of the Cainite/Nodite Black Nobility household far exceed capitalist billionaires. These leaders, to what the Bible reveals as Mystery Babylon the Great The Mother of Harlots, possess huge wealth to the point that the Jewish international bankers look like “small peanuts” in financial comparison. Most of the Black Nobility families have taken the effort to stay out of the news and out of the world limelight at large, (except for the British House of Windsor who enjoy the attention) There are more than listed below, but these are the most notable elite aristocracy:

- House of Bernadotte, Sweden
- House of Bourbon, France
- House of Braganza, Portugal
- House of Grimaldi, Monaco
- House of Guelph, Britain (the entire Windsor family)
- House of Habsburg, Austria
- House of Hanover, Germany
- House of Hohenzollern, Germany
- House of Karadjordjevic, Yugoslavia (old name)
- House of Liechtenstein, Liechtenstein
- House of Nassau, Luxembourg
- House of Oldenburg, Denmark

- House of Orange, Netherlands
- House of Savoy, Italy
- House of Wettin, Belgium
- House of Wittelsbach, Germany
- House of Württemberg, Germany
- House of Zogu, Albania

The question is also asked, “Aren’t these Saxon nations (sons of Isaac) , and aren’t these royalty all descendants of King David and therefore Israelite/Judah royalty?”

At one time, yes, the royalty of these nations were Israelite/Judah family lines. But that ceased many centuries ago. The Cainite/Nodite Black Nobility of Venice realized that in order to maintain their economic superiority over the western world the rulership of the western European nations had to be changed. Logistically it would have been impossible to do this by militant force. The Venetians astutely figured out that by intermarrying with the European monarch families their goal could be accomplished in a more “civil” manner.

How extensive was the inbreeding of the Venetians with the European royalty? Very much so. All of the above listed royal houses are related to the House of Guelph (pronounced Gwelf). The House of Guelph was one of the original houses of the Black Nobility of Venice, who were the former Roman aristocracy traced all the way back to Cain/Nachash, via back tracking from Carthage to Tyre, Sidon, Nod.

From a Canadian newspaper The Guelph Mercury, an article in 2019 entitled “What’s In A Name?”, we quote --- “Perhaps the line of monarchs from George I to Queen Victoria ought to be called the Guelph dynasty. The Guelphs were one of the powerful aristocratic families that dominated Europe for generations. The Guelph power bases were primarily in Italy and Germany. George IV had Guelph kin all over Europe ; Windsors (Britain) – Greece – Spain – Denmark --”. [underline added]

The House of Windsor descends from Guelphs, meaning that present King Charles and former Queen Elizabeth II are Black Nobility, not Israelitish. The same goes for nearly all the European royal houses especially the Germanic House of Hanover which bloodlines are also intertwined with the above listed European houses (pgs 3,4)--all Black Nobility. They, and not the Jewish bankers (as wealthy as some Jews may be), control the world's manipulation of money.

The Hanoverian British King George I came from the Duchy of Luneburg, a part of Northern Germany. Luneburg had been governed by the Guelph* family (Venetian) since the 12th century. The Windsors (actually Guelphs) have reigned by dominating the raw materials market, plus fixing the price of gold for generations. *[Guelph= German "Welf"]

Here are some of the European royalty with blood line ties to the Windsors, Hanoverians, Guelphs, Venetian Black Nobility, and ultimately ancient Cainite Nodites:

Above: The late Queen Elizabeth II (present King Charles to pic's left) with the royal British family. "Historically, monarchies obsessively recurred to inbreeding. --- up to this day, most European royal houses are still related one way or another." [ Related European Royalty, Isabel Cara, pub. Culturacolectiva, 2021] During her reign Queen Elizabeth II was the wealthiest person on Earth, accumulating ownership of 32 nations totaling 1/6 of the world's land mass (inherited now by King Charles). All British legislation debated by Parliament must be assented to personally by the British reigning monarch before it is law. How much land did Queen Elizabeth II own as held in trust for her nation? World wide - 6.6 Billion acres. Compare that to the next largest land ownership by a monarch and we can see what we are dealing with by the European Black Nobility. Number two belongs to Saudi Arabia's King Salman who owns 547 million acres. (And we thought the Arabs had money!)

Queen Margrethe II of Denmark is from the Royal House of Glücksburg. This house has Germanic Black Nobility roots as does the British royal house. King Charles of Britain technically isn't a Windsor but is a Glücksburg since his father Prince Philip belonged to that house. So we see that the Denmark royalty and the British house are related through their shared Glücksburg connection.

Here we have Sweden's Royal House, the Bernadotte line. King Carl XVI Gustaf of Sweden and Queen Margrethe II of Denmark are of this house. King Carl's mother and Queen Margrethe's father were sister and brother.

“Norway’s current king, Harald V, and Queen Elizabeth II are second cousins. Elizabeth’s grandfather, King George V, was the eldest brother of Harald’s grandmother. The Norwegian Royal Family also belongs to the Glücksburg House, and it’s also related to the British monarchy through another of Queen Victoria’s granddaughters, Maud of Wales. She was the daughter of Victoria’s second child, Edward, and was married to King Haakon VII of Norway.” quote source - [Related European Royalty, 2020, Isabel Cara]

The Netherlands: King Willem Alexander is descended from England’s King George II. King George’s daughter Anne married William IV Prince of Orange and this started the House of Orange Nassau and the rule over the Netherlands by the Black Nobility. Willem Alexander is directly from this line. 7

Space does not provide for more pictures and detailed related genealogies of all the European Royal families. The several above will suffice to illustrate the interwoven monarch control of the European continent. What we may additionally wish to note is the landed property possessions and residences of the ruling elite of European dynasties. What Americans view as ultimate homes of our “rich and famous” millionaires pale in comparison to the aristocracy of Europe. It should be mentioned that many once royal families of Europe decided to abdicate their royal notoriety and live a seldom seen existence of secluded aristocracy. These secluded have dropped the royal titles. The royalty and the aristocracy maintain property land holdings (as shown below) that number in the literally many hundreds of dwellings never realized by most people.

Ooidonk Castle in Belgium built in 1595, currently the home of Count t’Kint de Roodenbeke.

The Windsor Castle estate complex, England. Residence of the British monarch.

France – Chateau de Chenonceau

Residence of aristocracy notable Diane de Poitiers (1499 - 1566) located on the Cher River, near the city of Tours. She was the mistress of King Henry II and wielded much political influence as his advisor. The chateau is today owned by the prominent Menier family whose wealth began as pharmaceutical manufacturers in Paris in 1816 and expanded to London and New York. Menier is also famous for French chocolates.

The famous Doge's (Dukes) Palace in Venice built in 1340. It served as the Venetian monarch home for centuries where political power throughout Europe was initiated until the Black Nobility moved to London, Amsterdam, Germany. Since 1923 it has been a museum and tourist attraction. 9

Mozna Castle – Poland. Owned consecutively by the German nobility and aristocrat families of Tiele-Winckler; von Reisewitz; von Seherr-Thoss (sherr thoss means “noble family”).

There are many hundreds of the Black Nobility residences scattered throughout all of Europe of the likes pictured above in this addendum commentary. The only Jewish banker family that nears the residents’ magnitude of the European aristocracy is the House of Rothschild that owns a few similar on the lower end of this scale. However, we need to include one more due to its importance throughout history as well as current events. It is that of the Pope’s residence in the Vatican City (Pictured below)

This is the Roman Catholic Apostolic Palace, at the Vatican. It boasts 1400 rooms and is the official residence of the Popes. To put this in perspective, Donald Trump’s mega-mansion Mar-a-Lago (Florida) has 126 rooms; not too shabby, but not in the league of the Black Nobility and their religious accomplice of the Papal empire and its Holy See.

Above: Just one of the many hallways in the Apostolic Palace, meeting place of the modern religion of Nachash and its consortium of Baal Priests.

Black Nobility aristocrat extravaganzas and meetings have not changed over the centuries

The entire battle between good and evil in the world is traced back to Genesis 3:15 as a struggle between Eve's seed and the seed of the feminine Nachash. It is imperative that Christians know who the top adversary is in order to act wisely according to the Word of God and to focus on correct prayer. Nothing much has changed except that the struggle has now gone "high tech" in our modern age. The multiple followers of the deified Nachash still have as their goal an installment of a matriarchy religion/government (worship of the Queen of Heaven) where the patriarchy of Adamic man by the King of Kings, Yahshua/Jesus is destroyed from off the Earth. Although the road may be a bumpy ride ahead the anti-God anti-nature anti-law usurpers will not succeed. The feminine religion of Nachash was also the power of the Chaldeans (Babylon) depicted in our Bible. Yahweh's judgment is upon them: "Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for thou shalt no more be called The Lady of Kingdoms" (Isaiah 47:5) "daughter of" means the "last day descendants of" and is the same as Mystery Babylon the Mother of Harlots (Rev.17:5) which brings us to our present time. Pray for the patriarchy of King Jesus. The divine victory is for our royalty as the Christian sons and daughters of Yahweh Almighty Most High. Jesus has made us Kings and priests. (Rev.1:5,6) 11
