

The Ongoing American Contrived Crisis Scenario

A state of emergency --- or in reality a state of war?

Compiled from various law sources pertaining to Christian liberty.

To all the truth researchers who have made this article possible, a heart felt “thank you” – KL

“Government is not reason; it is not eloquence; it is force! Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master.” --- George Washington

“Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof” – Lev.25:10
(Inscribed on our Liberty Bell)

“The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord”
(Jesus Christ – Matthew 10:24)

“But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant”
(Jesus Christ – Matthew 23:11)

In America our government was initially set up to be a servant of the people strictly for the sole purpose of protecting our God given rights as free inhabitants of the land. This is specifically decreed in the Declaration of Independence of 1776. Moreover, God’s Word says, “Thou shalt also decree a thing and it shall be established unto thee---” (Job 22:28). Liberty decrees of Christian men Scripturally follow after “the spirit of the law” (2 Cor.3:6) even though the decrees may not be directly seen in the “letter of the law”. Obviously, the words “firearms and guns” are not found in the Bible but having them today for protection of self, family, and nation, follows “the spirit of the law” where Christ told us to buy a sword (Lk. 22:36). Would we be so nonsensical as to only use swords and knives today for protection on the grounds that modern firearm weapons constitute “evil man made laws” since God never told Moses about guns? God forbid we should be reduced to that level of thinking. The great documents of early American liberty fall in line with the Scripturally sound “spirit of the law” as do our use of firearms and other modern usages we are blessed with. Not everything is automatically evil just because it is not denotatively to be located within Scripture writ. Yahweh God knows our situation.

At that time of our early nation (1776 – 1861) the people of America were a Christian people, and nobody could hold the position of a government servant (public office) unless they were white Christian. This was the primary Biblical concept that became our Republic, a Commonwealth (Eph. ch.2) comprised of inhabitants of free sovereign States, with the States' people making a servant (federal government) having very limited powers (chores to do) in order to facilitate a bonding between the States that would precipitate a strong and safe nation in which to live and to worship God, that is, an assembled Union. "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together." (Heb. 10:25) "--- A three fold cord is not quickly broken" (Ecc.4:12) . "That the preceding Constitution be laid before the United States in Congress assembled" – decreed in Convention, Sept.17th, 1787 ("Congress assembled" means "Congregation assembly" of the then Christian States. Our three fold cord is judicial, legislative, executive, branches of the Commonwealth in "the spirit of the law" following God's rule of Isaiah 33:22 as He works through His chosen, Philippians 2:13. American patriots in 1776 said "No King but Jesus")

In unified symbolism, America at that time had "13 cords" (States) that were bonded upon the Christian principles of a unity not easily broken, which is why it took the enemies of liberty from 1776 until 1861 to break down the original agreement of the Union, the Constitution for the United States of America (1787). Although the Constitution* is not directly mentioned in the Bible, the Bible is in the original Constitution. The founding fathers never considered the Declaration of Independence, The Articles of Confederation, or the original Constitution to be any attempt to assert man's law above God's law. *[The Constitution is alluded to numerically in the Bible, another topic]

However, digressing into that lengthy topic it is outside the scope of this essay. Suffice it to point out that the founding fathers of America never ever considered themselves or their governmental agreements to be above God, as witnessed below:

In 1832, Noah Webster, author of America's first dictionary, published his History of the United States, in which he wrote:

"The brief exposition of the constitution of the United States, will unfold to young persons the principles of republican government; and it is the sincere desire of the writer that our citizens should early understand that the genuine source of correct republican principles is the Bible, particularly the New Testament or the Christian religion. The religion which has introduced civil liberty is the religion of Christ and His apostles, which enjoins humility, piety, and benevolence; which acknowledges in every person a brother, or a sister, and a citizen with equal rights. This is genuine Christianity, and to this we owe our free Constitutions of Government."

As most of us know by now, the generations that followed the era of the Revolution lost their zeal and vigilance to maintain the Republic. They let the servant become the master.

"Delight is not seemly for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes."
(Proverbs 19:10)

Since the commonwealth Christian Republic was comprised of sovereign States with a working servant (Federal US government) that served us well at the beginning, when did “the servant” become rebellious and injurious unto those who created it (we the people)?

Answer:

The original Union and the original Constitution for America were both overthrown with the event we call “The Civil War”; also with the unlawful passage of the Congressional Reconstruction Act of 1867; plus the unlawful 14th amendment; all of which together implemented a military takeover of the lawful southern States by the northern States in order to create false legislatures (under military order) in those southern States. The Reconstruction Act was passed after the war was over and the south’s rebellion was put down. The southern States with their new bogus legislatures were ordered to make new State constitutions before they (the States’ legislatures) would be allowed to enter the remade “new union” in the federal Congress, a military union not any longer belonging to the people “of America” (the old union of sovereign States comprised of “we the people”). Please keep in mind that the old Union was from then on no longer in existence. It is furthermore beyond the scope of this essay to present herein the great accumulation of evidence at law concerning the Reconstruction Act and the equally unlawful 14th Amendment (which gave US/DC citizenship to freed Negro slaves) which amendment was never properly ratified by the States. It is enough at this time to present the following to inform the reader precisely how deadly the preplanned and contrived “Civil War” was to our liberties today. How do a steady train of “emergencies” of today relate to that war? And what is the affect upon each of us individually?

To wit:

The first Executive Order (#1) was issued by President Abraham Lincoln, and it brought martial law (military law) into America because of the War Between the States (aka Civil War). It has never been repealed and is still in effect.

"A majority of the people of the United States have lived all of their lives under emergency rule...And, in the United States, actions taken by the Government in time of great crisis have, from at least the Civil War, in important ways, shaped the present phenomenon of a permanent state of national emergency". Congressional Report No. 93-549, 93rd Congress, 1st Session, Emergency Statutes: Provisions of Federal Law now in Effect Delegating to the Executive Extraordinary Authority in Time of National Emergency, page 1, November 19, 1973, pursuant to Senate Res. 9, pub. By the U.S. Gov. Printing Office, Wash D.C.

According to the Supreme Court, "Congress has made little or no distinction between a state of national emergency and a state of war." Brown vs. Bernstein, D.C. pa., 49 F. Supp. 728, 732.

According to the “Law of Nations”, "the most immediate effect of a state of war is that it activates the Law of War itself."

And according to the Law of War, "martial law is obtained during a state of war and in truth and reality, is no law at all."

“Everyone who commits (practices) sin is guilty of lawlessness; for that is what sin is, lawlessness [the breaking, violating of God’s law by transgression or neglect; being unrestrained and unregulated by His commands and His will].” 1 John 3:4 Amp Bible

Since martial law is no law at all, our government is and has been lawless for 160 years! Thus, they cannot lawfully bring a Lawful disciple of Christ into its courts, since he stands on God's Law. This is why the government cannot bring anyone into their courts using their lawfully spelled Christian name, and must convert it into a fictitious name of all capital letters (i.e. – JOHN DOE instead of John Doe).

The United States is at war with its people, and to get jurisdiction over them, the government must convert them into something lawless (something contractually legal), like 'corporations' and 'persons' for example. Governments only have jurisdiction over the lawless “legal persons”, and that's why they try to convert the bondmen of Christ into lawless entities by getting them to incorporate themselves, or by getting them to accept the marks of corporations, by making us sign contracts with them the new socialist government “boss” of the new union, which has usurped the Biblical servant government of the old Union under the 1787 Constitution.

“The people of the UNITED STATES (corporate US) celebrate the 4th of July in honor of the country’s independence, when in fact; the country has been conquered by use of the corporation and the ignorance of such a fact. Freedom is a myth, portrayed in the people’s minds, perpetuated by the real powers that control in order to avoid any major civil unrest.” (US of A vs US; HKW publishing 2006, pg.13)

In the law report Corpus Juris Secundum we find this statement of US legality, “The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a State.” CJS s.883

[The MUCH bigger question is how foreign is defined here, and who actually owns and controls the corporation]

This corporation only exists under the administrative rules of the “new union congress” (post civil war) and is at best only colorable at law, and not binding upon the once sovereign people of the old Union “of America” [as in: the United States of America] if indeed today anyone can still hold that former status. [Colorable: deceptive --- Cochran’s Law Lexicon 5th addition] We become tied to corp US through our silent assent and contracts entered into with it for benefits which “the corporation” offers us upon relinquishment of our rights of liberty. These benefits include, but are not limited to, social security enrollment, medicare coverage, federal licenses, passports, firearms registration, welfare benefits, etc.

In the early 1930's, President Roosevelt extended 'emergency powers' by Executive Order and declared all citizens of the United States, living in the several States, enemies of the United States (corp US/DC). This was done by the simple act of changing only one word in the "Trading with the Enemy Act" of 1917. He changed the word 'without' the United States, to 'within' the United States. Congress rubber-stamped Executive Order numbers 2039 and 2040 into law without debate.

Military Flags indicate Military Rule [more significant than one has suspected]

When you walk into any court today, you will see a gold-fringed flag. This flag is placed on a flagstaff, and the flagstaff head (the decorative ornament at the top of the flagstaff) is an image of an Eagle. What does such a flag signify? First, we will examine the yellow fringe. The answer is found in Eisenhower's Executive Order (#10843, August 21, 1959), the Code of Federal Regulations (at 24 C.F.R. 6865), & current law:

"... A military flag is a flag that resembles the regular flag of the United States, except that it has a yellow fringe border on three sides. The President of the United States designates this deviation from the regular flag, by executive order, and by his capacity as Commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces." 4 U.S.C., Chapter 1, Sections 1,2, and 3; Executive order No.10834.

"Placing of fringe on national flag...are within the discretion of the President as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy." 34 Ops. Attorney General, 483 (1925).

And the continued use of a yellow fringed flag is prescribed in current Army regulations: "...the Flag is trimmed on three sides with golden yellow fringe, 2 1/2 inches wide. The [military] flag of the United States is authorized for indoor display for...each military installation....each military courtroom. " United States Army Regulations, AR 840-10, Chapter 2, October 1, 1979.

Therefore it is elementary to conclude that a yellow fringe flag always indicates a military flag!

As far as the flagstaff head finial being an eagle, the answer to what this means is in the United States Army Regulations, AR 840-10, Chapter 8, § 2(a)(1), October 1, 1979. When an Eagle is placed at the top of the flagstaff, it indicates, "Eagle - Presidential Flagstaff."

Dear reader, the president is the Commander in Chief of the military. If the flag of the Commander in Chief is flown in all court rooms today, this proves that the law of that court is under the Commander in Chief! Which, again, confirms military law. 5

So why does this military flag fly in all Federal, State, County, and City courtrooms if they are not military courtrooms? The truth is, all government courts today are military courts. They sit in summary court martial proceedings against civilians, and are governed by the Manual for Courts-Martial. Just to clarify the question as to whether or not the people of the several United States (plural) are considered alien enemies of the corporate "United States" (singular) and subject to military courts, read the definition of Enemy as it relates the above noted manual:

Enemy: "Enemy" includes organized forces of the enemy in time of war, any hostile body that our forces may be opposing, such as a rebellious mob or a band of renegades, and includes civilians as well as members of military organizations. "Enemy" is not restricted to the enemy government or its armed forces. All the citizens of one belligerent are enemies of the government and all the citizens of the other. Manual for Courts-Martial, U.S., 1994 Ed., at Art.99, (c)(1)(b), page IV-34, PIN 030567-0000, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington D.C.

Belligerent. "In international law. As an adjective, it means engaged in a lawful war. As a noun, it designates either of two nations which are actually in a state of war with each other, as well as their allies actively cooperating, as distinguished from a nation which takes no part in the war and maintains a strict indifference as between the contending parties called a "neutral." U.S. v. The Anbrose Light, D.C.N.Y., 25 F. 412; Johnson v. Jones, 44 Ill. 151, 92 Am.Dec. 159. Black's Law Dictionary (4th ed. 1968), p. 197.

The real Constitution doesn't apply in courts today ---

"When a citizen is arraigned before a military commission on a criminal charge he is no longer under the protection of the law, nor surrounded with those safeguards which are provided in the Constitution. The accused may be sentenced to death, and the sentence may be executed without a judge. A sentence which forfeits all the property of the accused requires no approval." 12 Op. Attorney General 182 (1867).

Want verification right out of the "horse's mouth" (US Corp Fed Govt of DC) that the supposed "US Constitution" which the courts "rule on" today is not the original "Constitution for the United States of America" of 1787?: Read the statement below:

"While the union survived the civil war, the Constitution did not." – First black Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall, delivered in a bicentennial speech at Maui, Hawaii on 6 May 1987.

Does anyone want their day in 'court' now? Even the Scripture specifically says that we, Christians, are not to go to courts of "law before the unjust" nor "before the unbelievers" (1 Corinthians 6:1,6). The reason is because we are to separate ourselves from the unjust. How incredible that the just should go before the unjust for justice! (if they drag you in against your will, that's another story, wherein we become a witness for Christ)

Let's see where military law comes from. Read these two definitions from Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988.

Mars: "God of war." Page 829. Martial Law: Temporary rule by the military authorities over the civilian population when civil authority has broken down." Page 830.

Now, what is the connection between flags of courts and contracts? Let's continue:

"In maritime law: it is the law of that nation or country whose flag is flown. On a ship or government office or in a courtroom or wherever it is displayed gives notice by this flag to all who enter into contracts with the master that he intends the law of that flag to regulate such contracts, and that they must either submit to its operation or not contract with him." Black's law dictionary, 4th Ed., under ..flag, law of.

When a military flag is placed somewhere, it is giving notice to all who enter that all contracts within that place are governed by military law. And we have the choice of (a) binding ourselves to that law, or (b) to not contract with them. However, this situation has continued so long unchallenged in America that it has become virtually impossible for the average man or woman to obtain the basic necessities of life without being deceived, cajoled, enticed, or forced into contracts with "government" (especially requiring the SS#) such as obtaining a driver's license, voter registration, tax forms, marriage license, hunting license, social security benefits, medicare/medicaid benefits, dog licenses, building permits, etc. By these contracts Americans bow to military law.

Police enforce these military contracts, such as drivers licenses and the multitude of registration contracts. They strong arm you into contracting. A military flag flies in all drivers license buildings. Police happen to be all military, which is why they use military designations in all of their positions, such as Captain, Lieutenant, Sergeant, Colonel, etc.

To reiterate --- The 14th (not lawfully ratified) Amendment supplanted the Constitution's intent of "the Blessings of Liberty" that was bestowed upon the white posterity of the Preamble. Only white Christian men who were representatives of the white Christian people signed the Declaration and the original Constitution as a legacy left to white America. The equally unlawful Reconstruction Act of 1867 solidified the abandonment of that original Constitution. Under the Reconstruction Act (just after the civil war) the southern States were organized into Military Districts with their lawfully constituted Legislatures being removed by military force, and were replaced by rump so-called Legislatures. These Legislatures were given military orders to be seated in the new (but unlawful) “new union congress” only if and after they would comply to ratify the purported 14th Amendment which gave United States corporate citizenship to the then recently freed Negro slave population. ‘Corp US’ then proceeded to slap this new (unlawful) class of citizenship upon all the people in all the once sovereign states “of America” forcing ‘Corp US’ jurisdiction over them as we see today. Remember:

“While the union survived the civil war, the Constitution did not.” First black Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall, delivered in a bicentennial speech at Maui, Hawaii on 6 May 1987.

Do well meaning conservative Americans who think they can successfully argue about claiming God given Constitutional rights in today’s courts need more convincing? Read on:

“We are under a Constitution, but the Constitution is what the judges say it is.”
Charles Evans Hughes, Supreme Court Justice, in Dictionary of American Maxims (1955), p. 88.

The above attitude of the judges of the “new union” is completely foreign to the law of the old Union of the sovereign inhabitants of the several States as listed in the original Constitution. Judges under the old Union were never given power to interpret the Constitution. They were only given power to rule on cases at law and to see if a statute conformed to the clear written words of the original Constitution. If the statute did not line up with the Constitution, the statute was deemed void and unenforceable by the executive branch of government.

Constitution - "The 'original republic', the one for which our forefathers fought face to face, hand to hand, exists only in the minds of academics and fundamentalist patriots. The republic created in 1789 is long gone. It died with the 600,000 Americans killed in the Civil War." Columbia Law Professor George P. Fletcher in the June 23rd, 1997 issue of 'The New Republic', page 14.

In summary of this essay let Americans understand that the Constitution is suspended (has no effect) during a time of war. So called “Constitutional court rulings” under the new union today are cosmetic in nature only. Today’s courts of the corporate government only use Constitutional verbiage when a case suits their need to continue the march into socialism. No judge in this land will ever favorably rule by a decision in a court of record concerning matters to return our nation to that of the original Christian Liberty Republic under the “Constitution for the United States of America” as seen in the organic Preamble. Judges today only rule in courts on cases relevant to the “Constitution of the United States” (corp US) and those who have submitted to its jurisdiction by contracts.

"There is no limit to the powers that may be exerted in such cases save those which are found in the laws and usages of war....In such cases the laws of war (no law at all) take the place of the Constitution and the laws of the United States as applied in time of peace" (New Orleans v. Steamship Co., 20 Wall. 394)

Real Americanism and the actual knowledgeable memory of the once sovereign State "of America" has been dormant for so long that the recognition of the "American State" has been erased from the legal memory of our law books. Today's States have become federal 'corp US' military territories via their assent and contracts with that corporation.

"The great American principle of freedom is this: you never need permission, you grant permission. If you now feel that you need to ask our governmental humans for permission to act, you are NOT free, and, after asking our governmental humans for permission which is then denied, you are really a slave. Can you dispute this? Feeling a need to ask for permission to act means you are a prisoner in your own mind, a dependent not an independent, and not free. Asking for permission, which is then denied, means you are a prisoner IN REALITY." --- Uncommon Sense, Ram pub. 1988, pg 190

Yes, Americans are POW's in their own land and incredibly most do not realize it.

The situation is so extreme that our problem is not a political problem and politics will not solve it. "Right wing vs left wing" are two wings of the same bird and it's not the American eagle.

WHAT TO DO??

Yahweh Almighty, the Living God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, gives us the answer in His written Word. Trust Him.

Learn of our Saxon Israel family heritage and teach our children God's Laws:

"Hearken unto me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek Yahweh: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Look unto Abraham your father and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. For Yahweh shall comfort Zion (prophetic USA, Isaiah 18:7) and He will comfort all her waste places ---" (Isaiah 51:1-3)

"Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which Yahweh your God commanded to teach you --- and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children" (Deuteronomy 6:1,7)

"This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." (Josh. 1:8)

Repent of sins and seek forgiveness

“Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.” (1 John 3:4)

“If ye love me, keep my commandments.” (Jesus Christ in John 14:15)

“The blood of Jesus Christ, His (the Father’s) Son, cleanseth us from all sin.” (1 John 1:7)

“But whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.” (Matthew 10:32)

God will judge the land and deal with the ungodly --- get ready spiritually and physically

“He (God) will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins --- I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.” (Jer.14:10-12)

“Yahweh shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the Earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce countenance which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favor to the young.” (Deut.28:49,50)

“Come my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.” (Isaiah 26:20)
[“hide thyself”: contemporary translation > start networking with aware Christians for survival prep]

“And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from Yahweh our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail (solid plan) in His holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.” (Ezra 9:8)

Thank you dear reader for taking the time to review the preceding article. Read the Scriptures daily, study the divine law of God and how it relates to our national situation, teach your young ones about the mighty works of Yahweh (The Everliving), and thank God always for His grace of our sins forgiven by the Cross of Jesus the Lamb of God and King of Kings!
